Subject to clause 11, this Agreement shall commence on the Start Date and shall have effect for the Initial Period and shall continue thereafter unless or until terminated by either party giving the other not less than three months’ notice expiring at the end of the Initial Period or at any time thereafter.

3 THE SUPPLIER’S OBLIGATIONS

1. The Supplier shall provide and carry out the Services for the Customer at the Customer’s Premises/ or at their own premises on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement.

2. The Supplier shall use all reasonable skill and care in the provision of the Services.
3. The Concept Design projects provided by the supplier may include market research work in accordance with the instructions of the client. Porter & Brawn will provide to the client the results of the market research carried out. Porter & Brawn cannot guarantee that market research accurately reflects or predicts market response. Interpretation of the results of market research is a matter of opinion and Porter & Brawn accepts no liability for the same.

4 THE CUSTOMER'S OBLIGATIONS

1. Except as may be expressly provided in Section A, the Customer shall, at its own expense, provide all necessary equipment and facilities at the Customer's Premises to enable the Supplier's employees to carry out the Services. Such facilities and equipment shall include, without limitation, adequate heating, lighting, power, toilet facilities, telephone, first aid and fire fighting equipment.
2. The Customer shall from time to time notify the Supplier of the existence and location of all materials at the Customer's Premises which are defined as hazardous by the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations 2002 or its successor for the time being and the Customer shall ensure that those parts of the Customer's Premises which the Supplier's employees may visit, in order to carry out the FM Services, will constitute a safe place of work. The Customer shall indemnify the Supplier against all claims resulting from any failure by the Customer to comply with the obligations set out in clauses 4.1 and 4.2.
3. The Customer shall provide on a timely basis all information reasonably required to enable the Supplier to provide the Services. The Customer agrees that all such information disclosed to the Supplier is or will be true, accurate and not misleading in any material respect. The Supplier will rely on, and will not independently verify, the accuracy and completeness of any such information supplied by the Customer. The Customer shall be responsible for informing the Supplier of any changes to the information originally presented by it.
4. Throughout the duration of the agreement, the Client may form a contractual relationship with Third Party Suppliers, and will be responsible for managing these relationships and any financial settlements direct with Third Party Suppliers.

5. If so requested, Porter & Brawn may coordinate the services with the Third Party Suppliers on their behalf, as part of the service undertaken, but the Client will remain ultimately responsible for the contractual relationship with the Third Party Supplier. Porter & Brawn is not responsible for forming any contractual relationship on behalf of the client.
6. Where Porter & Brawn is responsible for organising Third Party companies, firms or individuals ("Third Party Suppliers") to undertake certain work for the Client, such as decorating, electrical installations, construction and carpentry and such other work the contract of work is between the payee (client) and the contractor and not with Porter & Brawn so we can not be held responsible for any damages or inconvenience caused by 'third party suppliers' but will do our best to mediate on your behalf should it be necessary should these occasions occur.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY AND COPYRIGHT

1. Each party shall take all reasonable precautions not to disclose to any third party any confidential information concerning the parties' Maintenance arrangements or the business of the other party including without limitation any assignment instructions/works orders and the contents of this Agreement.
2. This obligation shall not apply to information that is or becomes public knowledge through no fault of the parties or which the receiving party can prove was lawfully in its possession before the date of disclosure; or is received from any third party having the right to disclose such information; or the disclosing party has by written approval agreed may be disclosed to third parties.
3. As of the 25th May 2018 our Privacy Policy has updated to be in compliance with GDPR. We are committed to your privacy and will always be transparent with how we store and use your data.
4. The copyright, design right and all other intellectual property rights in any materials and other documents or items prepared or produced for the Client by or on behalf of Porter & Brawn in connection with the Services shall belong to Porter & Brawn absolutely and any such materials, documents or items or use them for any commercial purpose.
5. Porter & Brawn shall be permitted to use photographs of the Client's property which demonstrates the Services provided by Porter & Brawn for its items shall be or remain the sole property of Porter & Brawn.

7 CHARGES

1. The total cost of services will be agreed as either a percentage or fixed fee basis in the contract.
2. The Charges shall be invoiced by the Supplier in accordance with the invoicing terms set out in Section A, and the Customer shall pay such invoices within 14 DAYS of the date of invoice without deduction or set-off. Payment should be made by PayPal or bank transfer.
3. The Charges subject to Value Added Tax (where applicable)
4. If any sums owing to the Supplier are overdue the Supplier may:
 - a) charge interest on the outstanding amount in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 2013 and any regulations made thereunder for the period commencing on the due date until the date of payment.
 - b) suspend the provision of the Services (but the Customer shall remain liable for payment of the Charges to the extent that the Supplier is unable to mitigate such Charges during the period of suspension).
5. The Supplier shall invoice the Customer for any additional services, as agreed between the parties from time to time, monthly in arrears and the Customer shall pay such invoices within 14 days of receipt.
6. The design fee on a percentage basis means that the percentage specified in the Letter of Engagement applied to the gross contract value. The design fee will be payable in the following percentage instalments at the following stages.
7. Payment instalment details

INSTALLMENT	% of design fee payable	Stage at which fee payable
First	20	Signed contracts
Second	20	Research Stage
Third	50	Document stage
Forth	10	Effective Completion

8 LIMITATION OF THE SUPPLIER'S LIABILITY

1. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit or exclude the Supplier's liability for death or personal injury caused by the Supplier's negligence.
2. The Supplier and the Customer agree that:
 - a) the value of the property intended to be protected under this Agreement and the potential extent of Loss are each better known to the Customer than to the Supplier;
 - b) the potential extent of Loss is disproportionate to the amounts which the Supplier can reasonably charge under this Agreement;
 - c) the Supplier cannot obtain unlimited insurance cover for its potential liability under contracts such as this. There are some risks against which the Supplier cannot insure. The Customer is better able to and should insure the property intended to be protected under this Agreement and against any consequential loss the Customer might suffer;
 - d) it is difficult to investigate claims unless they are received a short time after Loss is alleged to have occurred;
 - e) the Supplier would wish to correct any ongoing default under this Agreement at the earliest opportunity;and that consequently the Supplier should restrict its liability for Loss to the circumstances described in this clause 8 and to the Limit of Liability selected by the Customer.
3. If the Supplier, its employees or agents have any liability to the Customer for any Loss, such liability shall in all cases whatsoever (subject to clause 8.4) be limited to the payment by the Supplier on its own behalf and on behalf of its employees or agents of an amount equal to the Limit of Liability in respect of any one event or series of related events attributable to one cause.
4. Without prejudice to the limitation of the Supplier's liability as provided in clause 8.3 above, the Supplier's liability to the Customer in any circumstances under or in the course of performing this Agreement (whether under the express or implied terms of this Agreement, or in tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty) or in any other way and whatever the cause) for any loss of profit, business, contracts, revenues or anticipated savings, or special, indirect or consequential damage of any nature whatsoever suffered by the Customer shall be limited to the payment by the Supplier on its own behalf and on behalf of its employees or agents of an amount equal to 10% of the Limit of Liability in respect of any one event or series of related events attributable to one cause.

5. Except as provided for in Clause 8.1, the Supplier shall not be liable in any way whatsoever for any Loss resulting from or in connection with any Nuclear Risks and Asbestos Risks.
6. The Supplier, its employees or agents, shall not be liable to the Customer in any circumstances or to any extent whatever in respect of Loss unless notice of claim is received by the Company within three months of the discovery by the Customer, its employees or agents of the Loss alleged to give rise to any such liability or within three months of the time when the Customer ought reasonably to have discovered such Loss, whichever is the earlier.

9 INDEMNITY BY THE CUSTOMER AGAINST CLAIMS FROM THIRD PARTIES

1. The Customer shall insure any property belonging to third parties (or insure against any liability for its loss) which is intended to be protected under this Agreement and/or obtain the agreement of such third parties to the Supplier's limitation of liability and consequently the Customer shall indemnify the Supplier as provided in clause 9.2.
2. The Customer shall indemnify the Supplier, its employees and agents against any claim whatsoever (and all costs incurred therein) made by any third party asserting any proprietary or possessory right or interest in any property in relation to which the Supplier provides any service under this Agreement or asserting that any duty of care is owed to it in the light of this Agreement which causes or which would otherwise cause the total liability of the Supplier to the Customer and such third party to exceed its liability to the Customer as limited by this Agreement.

10 FORCE MAJEURE AND DUTIES DURING INDUSTRIAL ACTION

1. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any failure or delay in carrying out its obligations hereunder where such failure or delay is caused by circumstances beyond its control which it could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen at the time the Agreement was made and whose effect it could not reasonably have avoided or overcome, provided that this clause shall not apply to an obligation to pay the Charges.
2. In the event of a strike or other industrial action at the Customer's Premises by the ~~Customer's or a third party's employees, the Supplier's employees shall not be~~ required to carry out any duties of a strike-breaking nature nor additional duties which do not relate to the Maintenance of the Customer's Premises or its contents.

11 TERMINATION

1. Either party may terminate this Agreement forthwith by giving notice to the other if:
 - a) the other party is in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement and, in the case of such breaches capable of being remedied, fails to remedy that breach within [enter number of days] days of receiving notice of such breach; or
 - b) the other party commits an act of bankruptcy or goes into liquidation other than for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation or suffers the appointment of a receiver or administrator of any of its property or income or makes any deed or arrangement with or composition for the benefit of any of its creditors or otherwise becomes insolvent.

12 GENERAL

1. This Agreement forms the entire agreement between the Customer and the Supplier relating to the provision of the Services. It replaces and supersedes any previous proposals, correspondence, understandings or other communications whether written or oral.
2. Any amendment of this Agreement shall not be effective unless agreed in writing and duly signed by the Supplier and the Customer.
3. If any term or provision in this Agreement shall be held to be illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part, under any enactment or rule of law, such term or provision or part shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected.
4. No waiver, delay or failure by either party in enforcing any provision of this Agreement shall prejudice or restrict the rights of that party under this Agreement, nor shall waiver by either party of any breach operate as a waiver of any subsequent breach.

5. Any notice required to be given under this Agreement shall be addressed to the relevant party at the address specified in this Agreement or as notified by the parties to each other from time to time.
6. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of England and the Courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction in relation to any matters arising out of this Agreement (except enforcement of an order made by the Courts of England and Wales).
